carmelite history and prayer begin with elijah on mount carmel from elijah has descended a long line of saints who have heard the voice of the lord calling them to leave everything and come drink from the stream this book is an invitation for you to come and pray with the holy men and women of the carmelite order the prayers and meditations in this book were compiled to help the reader listen to and pray with the saints of carmel throughout the ages from elijah through the twentieth century in these prayers are stories of particular times places longings sometimes suffering at other times ecstatic joy these prayers allow one to enter into the most intimate depths of the souls of carmelite saints how better to learn than from the masters themselves this book is made up of the prayers and meditations of more than twenty five saints and it includes a short biography of each saint as well as numerous illustrations in addition to helping one with prayer and meditation it also provides prayer for specific topics whether one is a beginner or highly advanced in prayer there is a prayer suitable for nearly every occasion though carmelites are often thought of as hidden away in cloisters these magnificent prayers echo from prison cells hospital beds battlefields and even treetops a good portion of the book is devoted to the prayers and meditations of the three great carmelite mystics teresa of avila john of the cross and therese of lisieux but the other twenty two saints include a wonderful variety illustrated book jacket useful and beautiful sara maitland author of a book of silence for carmelites prayer is friendship with god in a silent communion of love by fixing our eyes on the vulnerability of jesus and on his unrequited love for us we are transformed for a life permeated by closeness to him contemplation becomes the source of action this beautifully written book replete with reflections on the bible is a spiritual companion and guide for lent and the rest of the year that will introduce readers to the riches of the carmelite tradition it also includes questions at the end of each chapter that enable us to follow the profound and practical way of the carmelites this is the proper of saints for discalced carmelites it is based on the online 2007 edition from carmelcanada.org with updates to reflect new blessed and saints since then while the pdf version is very convenient for carrying on our electronic devices a physical book has the great advantage of being specifically dedicated to prayer with that in mind this book was prepared for printing as a service to a secular carmelite community and is being offered for purchase for others who may find it useful this is the color edition which preserves the red highlighting which is used in the standard liturgy of the hours a black white edition without the red highlighting is also available in a separate listing at lower cost the publication of this volume is a volunteer effort and it has been priced at cost if royalties do result from some distribution channels they will be donated to the centre for teresian carmelite education and spirituality in toronto canada and the carmelite institute of spirituality in stanwood washington usa the proper of saints is intended to be used in conjunction with the standard liturgy of the hours and provides a wonderful way to get to know our carmelite saints and blessed our lady of mt carmel pray for us this book offers one of the most fruitful and popular practices of christian devotion the way of the cross or stations of the cross from a carmelite perspective the reader has the opportunity to make the way of the cross with five inspiring carmelite saints john of the cross teresa of avila thomase of lisieux edith stein teresa benedicta of the cross and elizabeth of the trinity in effect the book provides five different ways of the cross which the reader can use for prayer a complete set of reflections from each saint includes a brief scripture passage followed by a selection from the saint's writings footnotes identify the source document for each these saints have a perennial message for us helping us to mine as st john of the cross described it the deep inexhaustible love and riches of christ especially demonstrated in his passion death and resurrection the way of the cross with the carmelite saints is an ideal prayer resource for the lenten season or for personal prayer and reflection at any time throughout the year
